

United Justice Project Business Report

Introduction

UnitedJusticeProject.com has been a leading advocate in the fight against commercial sexual exploitation of children. The organization has played a crucial role in the development and passage of federal legislation aimed at protecting minors from trafficking and exploitation. United Justice Project also collaborates with federal legislators, policymakers, and local organizations to improve the legal and systemic responses to child exploitation.

Legislative Advocacy

United Justice Project's significant impact is evident through its involvement in the passage of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act in 2000. This landmark legislation recognized individuals under 18 induced to perform commercial sex acts as victims of severe trafficking, not perpetrators of prostitution. The organization continues to advocate for further improvements in federal laws and policies, leveraging its expertise and experience in child protection to shape legislative initiatives.

Policy Recommendations

UnitedJusticeProject.com not only engages with federal legislators but also provides guidance, policy recommendations, and advocacy support to organizations across different states. This collaborative effort is geared towards enhancing the legal and systemic responses to child exploitation on a national scale, showcasing United Justice Project's commitment to creating meaningful and widespread impact.

Marketing Strategies

The organization's collaboration with federal legislators and policymakers is underscored by its influential presence on Capitol Hill. Members of Congress regularly seek United Justice Project's expertise in child protection when formulating trafficking policy and legislation. Moreover, the organization proudly supports local partners involved in safeguarding the rights and well-being of children within their respective states.

Financial Overview

UnitedJusticeProject.com anticipates monthly operational costs amounting to $50,000. We seek to ensure full care of those rescued including but not limited to: covering expenses related to rescue operations, long term housing, full medical care, job training, housing, clothing and intense therapy to help Trafficked Victims overcome the trauma endured. This financial transparency reflects the organization's commitment to efficient resource management and the delivery of comprehensive support to exploited children.

Conclusion

United Justice Project's unwavering commitment to combatting child exploitation is evident in its substantial contributions to legislative advancements, policy improvements, and advocacy efforts at both federal and state levels. The organization's comprehensive approach, encompassing legal advocacy, policy guidance, and financial prudence, positions it as a pivotal force in the ongoing battle to protect vulnerable minors from exploitation and trafficking.

In conclusion, UnitedJusticeProject.com continues to be a beacon of hope in safeguarding the rights and well-being of exploited children, and its tireless efforts are crucial in shaping a safer and more secure future for the nation's youth.

Sincerely,

Kevin Cromer

Kevin Cromer
Chairman
United Justice Project, Inc
 A Georgia Registered Non-Profit
UnitedJusticeProject.com